TITLE

The risk in goods supplied by the Seller to the Buyer shall pass to the Buyer upon delivery but ownership in them shall not pass to the buyer until the Buyer has discharged all outstanding indebtedness to the Seller whatsoever.

Until payment in full of such indebtedness has been made, the buyer acknowledges and agrees that:

- a. The goods supplied are held by the buyer as bailee to be sold by it as agent for and on behalf of the Seller.
- b. The Buyer shall, if directed by the Seller store the goods supplied in such a way that it is clear that they are the property of the Seller.
- c. The Buyer hereby irrevocable gives the Seller, its agents or servants, leave and licence without giving notice to enter on and into any premises occupied by the Buyer to search for and remove any of the goods supplied to or in which the Seller has ownership as aforesaid without in any way being liable to the Buyer or any person or company claiming through the buyer. If the goods or any of them are wholly or partially attached to or incorporated in any other goods, the seller may where practicable disconnect or sever in any way whatsoever as may be necessary to remove the goods.
- d. If the goods have been resold by the Buyer prior to payment in full of the outstanding indebtedness of the Buyer, then the proceeds of such resale shall be the property of the seller but for an amount no more than such indebtedness.
